Pay more for fuel

[ NT Bureau |
Chennai, Aug 3:

The cashback discount given by oil companies to customers paying for their fuel with digital money has been trimmed down from 0.75 per cent to 0.25 per cent, just 20 months after the scheme was introduced.

The idea of making payments through either digital cards at petrol pumps has its own charm. One of the common reasons why most of the vehicle owners prefer paying for their petrol and diesel purchase through cards would be the heavy cashback and incentives offered by oil companies. OMCs like HPCL, Indian Oil and BPCL tied up with many banks allowing benefits to customers in order to use cards for making payments.

But recently oil companies have informed the petrol pump operators that the discount has been cut to 0.25 per cent.

Dear Business Partner, Kindly note and inform your all customers that Digital Cashback has been revised from 0.75 per cent to 0.25 per cent with effect from August 1, 2018 across oil industry for all loyalty customers, said the text message sent by state-owned oil companies to petrol pump operators.

7th Pay Commission: Will Centre announce salary, retirement age hike for govt staff?

[ NT Bureau / Agencies |
Chennai / New Delhi, Aug 3:

There is palpable tension as Independence Day approaches as Central government employees await good news on the Seventh Pay Commission. There has been speculation galore that the Prime Minister would make two announcements on 15 August.

However, there is no confirmation whatsoever on this issue and issues relating to the Seventh

[ NT Bureau |
Chennai, Aug 3:

Pay Commission are still under discussion. The two issues that the CG employees hope would be resolved are a hike in the basic pay and fitment factor and an increase in the retirement age.

Good news expected, but delayed

Analysts say that if one looks at the trend, there is no reason why CG employees should not get good news. The only issue is the timing on whether the announcement will be on Independence Day or further delayed.

The main reason seems to be Arun Jaitley, who underwent a renal transplant in mid-May and was prescribed a three-month rest. He has been part of all the major decisions regarding the 7th Pay

Commission is yet to take charge of the ministry. He was on a three-month hiatus and will return to the Finance Ministry only after 15 August. This would mean that a full decision would be taken only after he returns to office. During there is a greater chance of Modi giving the CG employees an assurance on August 15. For him to take a decision on the spot would not be possible as the issue is still under consideration. The source also said that good news regarding ding strike and quota related issues, now will have to face another strike from its own employees. State government employees have decided to go on a three-day strike starting on August 7.

Around 1.25 lakh state government employees announced their decision to go on a three-day strike starting on 7 August. The state government employees who have been demanding implementation of the Seventh Pay Commission's recommendations and raising the retirement age from 58 to 60, and five-day work weeks. They had also demanded to fill 1.80 lakh vacant posts, two years of maternity leave for women officers and promotions in a time-bound manner. They have claimed that even though the Central government had announced the implementation of the commission's recommendations on January 1, 2016, but the state has done anything yet.

Chief adviser of Maharashtra State Gazetteers Officers Association, GD Kulthe said, 'Representatives of the employees had met Chief Secretary DK Jain with their demands but he failed to offer them satisfactory solutions. We have waited long, and now, we have decided to go on protest. There is no going back.'

WHAT
WANT

Central government employees minimum pay and fitment factor may well be increased in one of the upcoming national holidays. More than 50 lakh central government employees are hoping that the fitment factor would increase to 3.69 per cent from the present of 2.57 per cent. The employees also have an expectation of the basic pay of Rs 26,000 from the present Rs 18,000. Pensioners too are expecting their incomes to rise courtesy of the government's decision, if, and when, it comes.

Analysts say that if one looks at the trend, there is no reason why CG employees should not get good news. The only issue is the timing on whether the announcement will be on Independence Day or further delayed the past three months. In Jaitley's absence, Railway Minister Piyush Goyal has held the charge of finance ministry and the files regarding this issue have not moved. Jaitley has however held a few meetings with officials via video conferencing, but the 7th Pay Commission was not deliberated at length. Sources say that the 7th Pay Commission is most likely to come only in November. However, there could be an assurance on Independence Day. At a recent meeting, the government had said that the decision would be considered only after the financial implications are taken into consideration.
